James "Matt" Howell named Camden County Government's Employee of the Quarter

Woodbine, Ga. (July 13, 2011) – On Tuesday, July 12, 2011 at the regular scheduled Board of County Commissioner's meeting, James "Matt" Howell was recognized as the Employee of the Quarter for the 4th quarter of Fiscal Year 2011 for Camden County Government. Matt has been a dedicated employee of the Department of Solid Waste since July 2002. His commitment has played an important role in the growth and success of this organization.

Matt works diligently as the expert mechanic at the Construction and Demolition (C&D) Landfill and is responsible for the daily maintenance and repair or all vehicles and equipment. In addition to his regular job duties, he also works as needed to fill in as the heavy or light equipment operator, performs grounds maintenance duties, and runs errands for the department. Matt is a dedicated employee, ensuring reliable services to the citizens of Camden County; for there is never a task too large to small for him.

The Board of County Commissioners expresses much gratitude for Matt's efforts and commitment. On behalf of Camden County's Employee Recognition Committee, we'd like to congratulate Matt on his efforts and for working with a true sense of team spirit, always being willing to help fellow workers and the public, and contributing to the effectiveness and efficiency of the County. Congratulations Matt!
