Annual Performance Review of Strategic Plan & Board Priorities

Woodbine, Ga. (January 18, 2012) – At Tuesday night's Board of County Commissioner's meeting, County Administrator Steve L. Howard presented to the Board a performance review of the County's 5-year Strategic Plan. This presentation outlined quality of life and open government initiatives, as well key accomplishments during 2011.

The County's Strategic Plan has led to many positive changes in the way we operate. The Strategic Plan identifies relevant areas for improvement and creates a dynamic organization that is proactive and flexible thus providing the ability to undertake future challenges.

County Administrator Steve L. Howard stated, "We are in the final year of the County's adopted strategic plan and have made much progress of reaching many of the goals that were established. It is exciting to see the success we have achieved to date utilizing a team approach!"
