Lisa Boyett named Camden County Government's Employee of the Quarter

Woodbine, Ga. (January 18, 2012) – On Tuesday, January 17, 2012 at the regular scheduled Board of County Commissioner's meeting, Lisa Boyett was recognized as the Employee of the Quarter for the 2nd quarter of Fiscal Year 2012 for Camden County Government. Lisa has been a dedicated employee of Camden County Fire Rescue (CCFR) since February 1999 serving her department as a Firefighter/Paramedic. Her commitment has played an important role in the growth and success of this organization.

Lisa is dedicated to serving the people of Camden County by protecting and preserving life, health and property against fire and other threats. She exudes a sense of leadership and pride in her duties as Captain, displaying a diligent work ethic and going the extra mile for both the department and the county. During her tenure with CCFR she has displayed unselfish acts of courage when called upon to respond to situations that place her in harms way, helping to save lives that are at risk. Lisa has exceptional skill and conduct, and helps to improve department morale.

In addition to her duties at CCFR, Lisa is involved in community service to enhance the lives of those less fortunate. She is an active member of Camden County's Star of HOPE program, devoting countless hours during 2011 to help make the holiday season brighter for those in need.

The Board of County Commissioners expresses much gratitude for Lisa's efforts and commitment. On behalf of Camden County's Employee Recognition Committee, we'd like to congratulate Lisa on her efforts and for working with a true sense of team spirit, always willing to help fellow workers and the public, and contributing to the effectiveness and efficiency of the County. Congratulations Lisa Boyett!
