FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tracy Webb Recognized as Employee of the Quarter

WOODBINE, GEORGIA – July 17, 2019 – At their July 16, 2019, regular meeting, the Camden County Board of Commissioners recognized Tracy Webb as Employee of the Quarter. This selection was made by the Camden County Government Employee Recognition Committee after receiving nominations from Camden County employees.

In her nomination of Tracy, Animal Control Supervisor Tabitha Lawson stated that, “she has repeatedly, gone above and beyond the scope of her assigned duties in order to assist members of the community.” Another nomination by co-worker Jonathan Chancy commended Tracy’s communication skills, problem-solving, positive attitude, and initiative.

Tracy has worked for the Camden County Board of Commissioners for over two years and currently serves as an Animal Control Officer. In this role Tracy assists the public with impounding stray animals, educating the public about responsible pet ownership, and enforcing state and local ordinances.
