Ashley Halliday Recognized as Camden County Government's Employee of the Quarter

Woodbine, GA – April 21, 2009: At Tuesday night's Board of County Commissioner's meeting, Ashley Halliday was recognized as the Employee of the Quarter for the 3rd quarter of Fiscal Year 2009. "Ashley is always positive and a diligent worker; she is motivated and dedicated," said Rick Daniel, her supervisor. "With the County's emphasis on customer service, Ashley is a beacon of such a worker. She is a constant bright spot of the day. Ashley mans the front line with a smile and a positive attitude that any customer (property owner) is hard pressed to leave our office in a foul mood. If Ashley does not have an answer she will find that answer with a due diligent process, which gathers all the offices resources. Ashley is surrounded with a staff that supports the efforts of the Assessor's Office. She is currently seeking an education in the field of appraisal that is not required of her, but knowing this new information will expand her knowledge and helpfulness for the customer. She is more than willing to better the office with her education. Ashley is but a single cog in the
