FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Camden County Welcomes ARPA Program Manager

WOODBINE, Ga. – September 9, 2021 – Camden County Administrator Steve Howard announces Eric Landon, MPA, AICP as the new American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) Program Manager. In this role, Mr. Landon provides program management and strategic leadership to guide the investment of the County’s direct allocation of the ARPA Local Fiscal Recovery Funds. Additionally, he will also help support navigating the County, other local governments, and the community in leveraging all funding opportunities associated with ARPA.

“We are pleased to welcome Eric Landon back to Camden County,” said County Administrator Steve Howard. “He brings a wealth of experience and knowledge in Camden County as well as southeast Georgia and northeast Florida.”

Previously, Mr. Landon served as Planning Director for Camden County and spent ten years working for Glynn County. He also served as the Director of Planning and Government Services for the Coastal Regional Commission with membership including 10 counties and 35 cities. In that role he worked with Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act funding and with other State and Federal partners.

Mr. Landon has a Bachelor’s Degree in Political Science and a Master’s degree in Public Administration from Georgia Southern University. He holds the Certified Planner designation from the American Planning Association.

About Camden County: Located in the extreme southeast corner of Georgia, Camden County truly is “Georgia’s Coastal Community of Choice.” Originally formed in 1777, Camden County is best known for its rich history, natural scenic beauty and Southern hospitality. Our vision is helping to make this the best place to live by preserving and enhancing the history and quality of life, while promoting smart growth and providing an efficient, effective and responsive government.
