Camden County Residents Encouraged to Monitor Subtropical Storm Nicole

WOODBINE, Ga. – November 8, 2022– Camden County Emergency Management Agency (EMA) is carefully monitoring the still-changing track of Subtropical Storm Nicole for impacts to Camden County. All citizens are encouraged to remain actively engaged by following Camden County EMA for updates regarding the storm. Nicole is forecast to reach the region possibly as early as Wednesday night and impacts may include strong wind and possible storm surge, particularly at the time of high tides. Residents should prepare now for tropical activity and rapidly changing conditions.

Local residents are also encouraged to visit the National Hurricane Center, <https://www.hurricanes.gov>, and the National Weather Service Office in Jacksonville, www.weather.gov/jax, as trusted sites for weather related information. In addition, Camden County residents are urged to sign-up for the CodeRED Emergency Notification System by visiting www.camdencountyga.gov/CodeRED or texting “CamdenCodeRED” to 99411. CodeRED is critical during situations like this as a direct method of communication from Camden County EMA to your landline, cell phone, or email. TDD/TTY service is also available.

Camden County Emergency Management Agency (EMA), the Camden County Sheriff’s Office, and in partnership with the cities of Kingsland, St. Marys, and Woodbine, along with Camden County Schools, and the National Weather Service (NWS) will coordinate incident response and public communications. Local residents should continue to monitor Camden County Website, Camden County EMA Facebook and Camden County EMA Twitter for updates.

About Camden County: Located in the extreme southeast corner of Georgia, Camden County truly is “Georgia’s Coastal Community of Choice.” Originally formed in 1777, Camden County is best known for its rich history, natural scenic beauty and Southern hospitality.
