5th Annual Employee Awards Ceremony Employees recognized for their dedication and hard work

Woodbine, Ga. (August 27, 2013) – The 5th Annual Employee Awards Ceremony was held Thursday, August 22, 2013 at the Public Service Authority. Camden County Government understands the importance in recognizing the efforts of its most valued resources, "The Employees".

The employees work hard on a daily basis to serve the citizens and contribute to the quality of life in our community. While budgets are slim and employees may not receive appreciation in the form of monetary pay raises, it is essential now more than ever to continue to celebrate the accomplishments of the most outstanding employees in other ways.

The Employee of the Year Award is open to the Employee of the Quarter winners and is designed to recognize an employee who consistently performs well beyond what the job description requires. This year the distinguished honor of Employee of the Year was presented to Jennifer Carver of the Tax Commissioners Office.

Jennifer has been described as someone who always has a positive attitude, handles herself professionally and has excellent organizational and customer service skills. She takes great pride in her job performance and is always upbeat. Her ambitious personality motivates the office and often helps to make a fellow co-worker's day a little easier. The volume of work that passes through the office is staggering, yet somehow Jennifer completes and organizes it in a manner that allows it to always be readily available. Jennifer takes each challenge as her own responsibility and follows through until it is resolved. There is no task she will not volunteer to take on, her work is exact and her energy and passion are infectious. She inspires everyone around her with her dedication, caring nature and phenomenal work ethic.
