Commissioner Sears read the following proclamation into the record:

Proclamation
of the Camden County Board of County Commissioners Recognizing the 10th Anniversary of Glynn/Camden Drug Court

WHEREAS, drug addiction and alcoholism is a community problem and finding help depends on involvement among people throughout the community; and

WHEREAS, whole families are affected by these diseases, and consequences are felt by the whole community; and

WHEREAS, a large number of crimes are committed with drug use and alcoholism as the driving force; and

WHEREAS, incarceration alone usually does not promote recovery and restore an individual to a positive, contributing community citizen; and

WHEREAS, Drug Court substance abuse treatment centers in cooperation with local 12 Step communities have demonstrated success across the nation; and are recognized for their innovation in providing treatment for substance abuse offenders and offering them an opportunity to regain control of their lives; and

WHEREAS, the Drug Court program has been successful in bridging the gap between the courts and treatment, creating greater cooperation between various agencies, the community, and the criminal justice system; and

WHEREAS, Judge Amanda F. Williams, assisted by law enforcement, the District Attorney, the Public Defender's office, and probation and treatment counselors, developed the Glynn/Camden Drug Court in November 1998 and received funding from the County as a show of support from the citizens of Camden County;

WHEREAS, 381 people have completed and graduated the Glynn/Camden Drug Court Program, which has proven effective in reducing crime and introducing people into a clean and sober life; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED BY THE COMMISSIONERS OF CAMDEN COUNTY that this body does hereby recognize and pay tribute to Glynn/Camden Drug Court on reaching its 10th Anniversary, and its remarkable dedication and commitment to the residents of Camden County.

Commissioner Rainer made a motion, seconded by Commissioner Sears, to reopen Regular Agenda Item Number 9.

The motion carried unanimously.

Vice-Chair Zell made a motion, seconded by Commissioner Sears, to add those revisions to the October 7, 2008, draft of the Unified Development Code as outlined in Mr. Bill Ross', of Ross and Associates, memo dated October 17, 2008, to the Unified Development Code, and waive the first reading of the ordinance to delete the Zoning Ordinance, the Subdivision Regulations, the Soil Erosion and Sedimentation Control Ordinance, and other ordinances and regulations or parts thereof and adopt the Unified Development Code of Camden County Georgia, in lieu thereof; including the Official Zoning Map, the Procedures for Call and Holding a Public Hearing, and the Standards for Exercising of the Zoning Power contained therein.

The motion carried unanimously.

For the record, those revisions are, as taken from Mr. Ross' memo dated October 17, 2008:

Revise section 1228(a)(1)j, and add a new paragraph k, to read as follows:

j. A maintenance surety providing adequate surety for the maintenance of all public improvements required by this Development Code, in accordance with the continuing maintenance provisions of Sec. 1231(a).

k. A performance bond or alternative improvement guarantee for the incomplete portions of improvements required under the Project Design and Construction Standards Article of this Development Code, in accordance with the provisions of Sec. 1231(b).

Revise Section 1231(b)(1) regarding the amount of the performance guarantee by replacing the figure "120%" with the figure "125%" of the cost of the incomplete improvements.

Add a new Section 1231(b)(5), and renumber the subsequent section accordingly, to read as follows:

(5) Return of guarantee.

When the improvements have been completed and approved by the responsible County department for conformity with this Development Code, the Performance Bond (or other improvement guarantee under Sec.

1231(b)(6) shall be released by the Public Works Director and returned to the applicant. When any portion of the required improvements have been completed and approved, a portion of the Performance Bond (or alternative improvement guarantee) commensurate with the cost of these completed improvements may be released and returned.

14. S-005-08(R), Re-plat – Sanctuary Village Commercial Park, Lot #15, Sanctuary Village, LLC. (District 1 – Chairman Rhodes)

16. Wayne County Passing Siding Letter of Support.

Commissioner Sears made a motion, seconded by Vice-Chair Zell, to approve the letter of Support for the Wayne County Passing Siding.

The motion carried unanimously.

17. Real property assessment and tax bill for property owned by Steve Irwin.

County Attorney Brent Green advised that a clerical error or a mistake was made in the entering of the zoning on the County property report card for Map/Parcel No. 134-017, 24.88± acres, owned by St. Marys Land Development. The property is zoned R3 according to documentation provided by the City of St. Marys. However, the property was entered as commercial zoning on the County's property report card, and this is an error.

Commissioner Berry made a motion, seconded by Commissioner Sears, to set the 2008 property taxes based on the current assessed value of $1,492,800.00; however the County Commissioners hereby adjust the 2008 taxes to an assessed value of $248,800.00; the property owner will pay 2008 property taxes on the $248,800.00 value; the Tax Commissioner is directed to make a notation that a refund was issued due to an error; and the Tax Assessor's Office will provide a letter to the property owner advising the zoning will be corrected from Commercial to R3, and the property will be re-evaluated based on R3 zoning for tax year 2009, as agreed to by Chief Appraiser Rick Daniel.

The motion carried unanimously.
