Board of County Commissioners Endorse Camden County's Citizens' Academy

Woodbine, GA – February 4, 2009: At Tuesday night's Board of County Commissioner's meeting, Support Services Director Staci Bowick presented Camden County's Citizens' Academy to receive endorsement from the Board. Camden County Government is dedicated to serving its citizens and continuously seeks new ways to better serve them. "It is important that we, as county government, take advantage of every opportunity to educate our citizens on how their tax dollars are being spent," said Steve Howard, County Administrator. The Citizen's Academy is a free interactive program designed to familiarize the general public with the roles, services, and operations that comprise Camden County Government. The program will focus on educating residents, business owners, and interested persons who work in Camden County on how daily County Government operations contribute to building a better community. Individuals must be willing to commit to ½ day per month for a period of 7 months. Classes will be held on the last Wednesday of each month from 8:30 AM to 11:30 AM at various County facilities.
